United States Department of State

Washington, D.C. 20520

Dear Mr. Chairman:

The Department of State refers to proposed legislation S. 1947, a bill which enhances the protection of United States interests under the Foreign Missions Act.

The Department has noted a tendency on the part of foreign diplomatic offices to blur the distinction between the usual diplomatic functions carried out by foreign missions and commercial, promotional and other activities which have, heretofore, remained outside the limits of traditional diplomatic practices. In broadening the definition of "foreign missions" the proposed legislation would extend the purview of the Foreign Missions Act to encompass these new, hybrid offices. Consequently, the Department would be better equipped to fulfill the intents and purposes of the Act both in terms of exacting reciprocal privileges for its own missions overseas and in enforcing those controls, regulations and policies which may be appropriate for offices and entities controlled by foreign governments and which are located within the United States.

The Office of Management and Budget advises that from the standpoint of the Administration's program there is no objection to the submission of this report.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

William L. Ball, III
Assistant Secretary
Legislative and Intergovernmental Affairs

The Honorable
Richard G. Lugar,
Chairman, Committee on
Foreign Relations,
United States Senate.
